ON THE WATER FRONT

NEW TOWING COMPANY WILL NOT CUT RATES.

No More Sailing Vessels Fumigated Being Done at Channel Wharf—Fannie Adele Off Marine Railway.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new Hackfeld scow and she will probably be ready to go into commission, within a few weeks.

The Fearless came off the marine railway and returned work yesterday. When the weather changes, and Captain McAllister of the government tug Eleu has the time, that vessel will pull up the trio of sunken piles out by the third buoy. These piles have long been a menace to yachts and the Public Works department has consented to remove the submerged timbers.

The schooner Fannie Adele, came off the marine railway yesterday afternoon, after having been given a thorough cleaning. She will probably go into commission soon.

As soon as the southerly weather subsides, the little house belonging to the Bishop Estate and situated by the Healan Boat house, will be moved and put on to the sea wall, back of the boat house.

Now that the fumigating scow is in commission, the sailing vessels do not have to go to the Channel wharf to be fumigated as the scow is in the alongside of them at their various anchorages.

Superintendent Durant of the new towing company says that his line does not intend to cut rates but will charge according to tonnage, just like the older tugs.

BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

Willie Vierra, a sixteen year old boy while riding a bicycle along King street near Thomas square last night about midnight collided with a hack driven by Fernandez of 113 hack stand. The shaft of the hack struck Vierra in the right side of the face inflicting severe injuries and rendering him unconscious. Fernandez took Vierra, unconscious, to the Queen's Hospital, where he regained consciousness about 2 o'clock. Fernandez says there was no light on the bicycle and that he himself was on the right of the road and did not know of Vierra's presence until the accident occurred.

Y. M. C. A. DEFICIT.

The finance committee of the Y. M. C. A. consisting of Henry Waterhouse, J. B. Atherton, W. C. Weedon, F. J. Lowrey, J. P. Cooke, E. A. Mott-Smith and C. H. Atherton arranged yesterday afternoon to mail a letter to the principal business houses of this city asking them to subscribe towards a fund of $2500 needed to satisfactorily close the financial year of that institution, there being that amount of indebtedness outstanding, owing to numerous improvements effected and the expenses for the evening class above the receipts.

DEMURRER SUSTAINED.

Judge Humphreys yesterday rendered a written opinion sustaining the demurrer in the case of J. J. Byrne against the Orpheum company. The suit was on a bill for $890.92, alleged to be owing to the Metropolitan Meat Company.

Charles R. Hemenway, administrator of the estate of the late H. G. Blatt, has been granted permission to sell the jewelry stock of the estate. Blatt's store was damaged by the fire early yesterday morning, and the goods have to be removed at once.

Maud Umanu has filed suit for divorce from Stephen Umanu, alleging adultery.

A GOOD THING.

There's one good thing when they feel dry. That business men cannot pass by. For far and wide it's same you hear. They stop to drink of "Rainier" beer. On draught or in bottle at Orlerton.
